Explore this site and discover Colorado's new private golf club community. Find out the amenities offered by the Country Club at Ravenna, the homes and real estate you can purchase, and take a virtual tour of the championship-level golf course designed by the world-renowned Jay Morrish — his last!

This piece of Colorado real estate is truly awe-inspiring. The community being built is no less extraordinary. As a private golf course community accessible only through a manned gate, you really do leave the rest of the world behind as you go home to Ravenna.

Along Ravenna's western boundary, residents enjoy unobstructed views of Denver and the eastern plains, while their neighbors below enjoy the views and proximity to the ravines that allow Ravenna's wildlife residents to move freely. And along its eastern border, residents find themselves sharing the land with dramatic red rock outcroppings and the two hogbacks that run through this breathtaking valley.

VINTNER'S CLUB - Fine wine and expert advice, the Ravenna Vintner's Club gives you access to both. The Clubhouse will include climate-controlled areas for member's private wine cellars. The on-site sommelier will offer suggestions and management of members' private stock and provide suggested wine pairings for special dinners or private parties. Partnering with boutique wineries to provide members with limited-availability, private reserve wines, the Vintner's Club will host wine tasting events and special dinners for members.

CASTING CLUB - Located on the Ravenna property along the banks of the Platte River, the Casting Club offers members access to a private fishing cabin. The cabin will provide members will lockers, running water, a wet bar, and sitting area. Members can enjoy a little fly fishing or just relax by the water. The concierge can arrange for an Orvis-certified instructor to help improve casting technique.

EXHIBITION KITCHEN - Ravenna's executive chef will offer scheduled cooking classes and demonstrations. Members can also arrange for private or small group instruction in either technique or a specific cuisine. Gourmet cooking with small groups or just friends makes for an enjoyable -- not to mention tasteful -- evening.

24-HOUR MANNED GATEHOUSE - Providing residents with security around the clock, the manned gate will assure residents have peace-of-mind whether they are at home or away. Guests can be pre-cleared or announced. Residents will be able to pick up deliveries from the gatehouse.

In recent years, the Denver area has seen golf courses spring up at a brisk pace. But where is the next great course — a private golf course and club destined to become legendary?

The Golf Course

AT RAVENNA IS THAT COURSE.

After a career designing some of America's finest golf courses, architect Jay Morrish chose Ravenna to be his final course — his masterpiece. Like a sculptor, Jay saw the kind of course he could chisel from this dramatic property. The course terrain includes high outcrop faces with breathtaking views, pockets of pine and aspen, sunny valley floors, and water. It is a course as beautiful and enjoyable as it is challenging. With up to five tee boxes on each hole, golfers at all levels can grow into this great course.

Experience a few holes as Jay envisions them, then Contact us for information about private golf club memberships available at Ravenna.

Insert Community Flyover

The Ravenna Community offers a mix of Tuscan-inspired home designs nestled in Colorado red rocks formations. The developers and builders of Ravenna worked to create an exclusive, gated, golf course community offering luxury amenities that blends with the Colorado landscape. Located less than 20 minutes from the Denver Tech Center and only 30 minutes from downtown Denver, Ravenna residents have the convenience of the city in a rural setting.

Insert Virtual Golf Holes

Taking care to use the dramatic topography offered by the area, Jay Morrish designed the golf course at Ravenna with multiple tee box locations giving golfers variety and challenge every time they play a round. The Country Club at Ravenna offers amenities that perfectly compliment a round on this extraordinary golf course.

THE RAVENNA LANDSCAPE

With hundreds of acres left untouched, the beauty of Ravenna will surround and refresh residents and club members alike. Real estate located this close to Denver in a development with this much open space is unprecedented. View photos
